Stock Transfers

Gifts of mutual fund shares or appreciated stock may be a great way to make a charitable gift that mitigates capital gains tax.

Charitable IRA Rollover (Qualified Charitable Distribution)

For those donors who are older than 70 1/2 years old, they can make gifts directly from their IRA to their favorite endowment fund at the Community Foundation of Lorain County without claiming the income.

Bequest

There are options for a gift transferred to the Grafton-Midview Public Library Endowment Fund at the Community Foundation Lorain County by Last Will & Testament. Your gift may be a dollar amount, a specific asset, a percentage of the estate, beneficiary of a life insurance policy, or the residue remaining after all other bequests have been satisfied.

Retirement Plan

Naming Grafton-Midview Public Library Endowment Fund as a beneficiary of their retirement plan will eliminate the income tax payable by their heirs. This choice of gift may also reduce federal estate tax.

Life Insurance

When donors name Grafton-Midview Public Library Endowment as owner and beneficiary of an existing or new life insurance policy, they receive an immediate tax deduction, which usually approximates the policy's cash surrender value. All premium payments made thereafter are deductible as a charitable contribution.

We Partner with the Community Foundation of Lorain County in managing our Endowment. These gift options may have a review process or other consideration factors for best results.

Please allow us to set up a joint call to consult with Laura Malone, Development Officer at the Community Foundation of Lorain County, to discuss these opportunities.
